11. Tax-Deferred Exchange. The parties agree that such election must be made prior to the Closing Date. If such an election is made by one of the parties hereto, the non-electing party shall reasonably cooperate with the electing party, provided any such exchange is consummated pursuant to an agreement that is mutually acceptable to Buyer and Seller and which shall be executed and delivered on or before the Closing Date. The electing party shall in all events be responsible for all costs and expenses related to the Section 1031 exchange and shall fully indemnify, defend and hold the non-electing party harmless from and against any and all liability, claims, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' and paralegal fees and reasonable attorneys' and paralegal fees on appeal), proceedings and causes of action of any kind or nature whatsoever arising out of, connected with or in any manner related to such 1031

The provisions of the immediately preceding sentence shall survive closing and the transfer of title to subject Property to Buyer. Any such Section 1031 exchange shall be consummated through the use of a facilitator or intermediary so that the non-electing party shall in no event be requested or required to acquire title to any property other than the Property.

13. Failure to Close.

- (a) Buyer's Default. If Seller has complied with all the covenants and conditions contained herein and is ready, willing and able to convey the Property in accordance with this Agreement and Buyer fails to consummate this Agreement and take title in breach of its duties hereunder, then the parties agree that the damages that Seller will sustain as a result thereof will be substantial, but difficult if not impossible to ascertain. THEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF BUYER'S DEFAULT, SELLER SHALL, AS ITS SOLE REMEDY, BE ENTITLED TO RETAIN THE DEPOSIT AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND NEITHER PARTY SHALL HAVE ANY FURTHER RIGHTS OR DUTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE OTHER UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

In the event that Buyer has complied with all of the covenants and conditions contained herein and is ready, willing and able to take title to the Property in accordance with this Agreement, and Seller fails to consummate this Agreement and convey title as set forth herein in breach of its duties hereunder, then Buyer may employ all legal or equitable remedies including specific performance of this Agreement, or terminate this Agreement and recover the Deposit with the interest thereon. Provided, however, in the event Seller's failure to consummate this Agreement is due to its inability to negotiate a short sale payoff with the current mortgagee, then Buyer waives its right to employ all legal or equitable remedies, this Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall receive back its Deposit plus accrued interest in full.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Escrow Agent shall have the right to require written releases from both parties prior to releasing the earnest money to either party. If a dispute arises between Buyer and Seller as to the existence of a default hereunder and/or the release of the earnest money and said dispute is not resolved by the parties within thirty (30) days, Escrow Agent may elect to file an action in interpleader and deposit the earnest money in the court to resolve said dispute, or otherwise disburse the earnest money pursuant to Maine Real Estate Commission regulations. Buyer and Seller, jointly and severally, shall indemnify Escrow Agent for all costs, losses, expenses, and damages, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Escrow Agent in connection with said action and/or in connection with any dispute relating to this Contract and/or the Deposit.

14. Auction. If the Property or any portion thereof is placed up for auction prior to the Closing occurring, Buyer shall have the right to bid on and purchase the Property at the auction.
